Everybody knows my day does not start without my coffee, and I love the Starbucks[®] Cold Brew Vanilla Sweet Cream.

Starbucks[®] makes it so easy to have a little pick me up, all I have to do is add ice and pour.

It's my favorite drink before heading to the studio.

It's exactly how I like to make my coffee, with vanilla, cream – and it's so smooth.

Alright, I'm ready.
